Wednesday, July 17, 1723.

Madrid, June 29.

THE Intendant Patino having published an Order at Cadiz for closing the Registers of the Flota by the 15th of this Month, after which Time no more Goods were to be put on board; the Chamber of Commerce there dispatched an Express to the King, with a Petition desiring that the Registers might be kept open and the Ships continue to take in Lading till the 15th of July, which his Majesty has granted. The Marchioness Dowager of Bedmar has a Pension of 10000 Ducats a Year, which her late Husband was allowed above the Sallaries of his Employments, in Consideration of his having been Governour of Flanders, continued to her.

Lisbon, July 9. On the 6th Instant Mr. Lumley His Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, had Audience of Leave of their Portugese Majesties, having obtained Permission from the King his Master to pass into England for this Summer on his private Affairs. His Secretary Mr. Cayley is to act in his Absence. Two Vessels of Gallies, one of six, the other of twelve Guns, have been some time cruizing on this Coast. On the 30th past they took two Merchant-Ships, one of which was a Dutch Vessel laden with Salt, which left this Port two Days before. Orders are issued for fitting out a Man of War of 40 Guns, to cruise two or three Months in these Seas, and prevent their doing further Mischief to the Trade of this Kingdom.

Berlin, July 13. It is thought the King will defer his intended Progress to Pomerania and Prussia till the End of this Week or Beginning of next. It is said the Queen will also set out some Time next Week for Hanover, but the Day is not yet fixed.

Pyrmont, July 20. The King has done taking the Waters, and intends to set out from hence for Herrenhausen the 22d Instant. Prince William and Prince George of Hesse-Cassel arrived here the 16th Instant at Night. They will leave this Place when His Majesty does. Paris, July 21. The new Secretary at War has made no Alterations in his Office since his coming into that Employment, but continues the same Clerks that served under M. le Blanc the former Secretary. 'Tis said that several Expresses are sent into the Country with Dispatches containing Orders to take up certain Provincial Receivers-General, together with Majors of Regiments, who are charged with Male-Practices. It has been reported that the Office of Lieutenant-Criminal would be laid aside, and that the Business of that Office would be executed by Vertue only of one Commission for the future, and given to M. de Barangue, Councellour to the Chatilet. It is said that M. le Blanc is carefully watched at his Country-House by a Person particularly ordered by the Government to attend him in the Nature of a Warder. The King of Spain's Order for restoring Commerce between the two Kingdoms as before the Contagion, has occasioned great Joy here among the generality of Traders. The Count de Bellay is very much hurt by a Fall from his Horse in Stag-hunting lately with the King in the Bois de Boulogne. Two Declarations of the King were published on the 17th relating to the Finances. The Order that was published some time ago concerning Seamen who desert in the Colonies of America, is as follows, viz.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

Which vastly transcends any Thing ever yet made publick, and is really the noblest Secret in Nature to beautify the Face, Neck and Hands, as most of the first Quality have experienced: For it gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising handsomeness to the Neck and Hands, on which last Account several Gentlemen as well as Ladies use it, and admire its superior Excellency, it being indeed far beyond any Paste, Powder, or Washball, for immediately making a red or rough Hand exceedingly smooth, fine and delicately White; it certainly takes away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Freckles, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Sun-burn, or any other discolouring, almost in an Instant; and removes all Wrinkles so perfectly, as not only to conceal, but even to rectify the Defects of old Age, making the Skin become so truely and incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and charming fair, as to cause Admiration in all Persons; and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, for it brings the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to its natural Beauty and Perfection, with a lasting youthful Fairness, Smoothness and Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates, as there is this Royal Beautifier prepared from the least Particle of Mercury or any thing Metalline, but is perfectly innocent and harmless, and may be given inwardly even to Children: It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is so far from being troublesome to use, that the nicest Ladies think it pleasant. Is to be had only at Mrs. Radford's Toy-Shop, at the Rose and Crown, next but one Mr. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, near Arundel-street-End, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions. Beware of Counterfeits under other Names.
